(2) The Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the persons attending the scrutiny under sub-rule (1), examine the nomination papers and decide an objection raised by any such person to a nomination.

(3) The Returning Officer may, either on his own accord or on an objection, conduct such summary inquiry as he may think fit and reject a nomination paper if he is satisfied that:

- (a) the candidate is not qualified to be elected as a member, a Chairman and a Vice Chairman, or a Mayor and a Deputy Mayor;
- (b) the proposer or the seconder is not qualified to subscribe to the nomination paper;
- (c) any provision of rule 12 or rule 13 has not been complied with; or
- (d) the signature or thumb impression of the proposer or the seconder is not genuine.

(4) The rejection of a nomination paper shall not invalidate the nomination of a candidate by any other valid nomination paper.

(5) The Returning officer may, for purposes of scrutiny, require any agency or authority to produce any document or record.

(6) In case of joint candidacy, the rejection of the nomination of either a Chairman or a Vice Chairman or a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor shall be construed as rejection of nomination of all those joint candidates.

(7) The Returning officer shall not reject a nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of a substantial nature and may allow such defect to be remedied forthwith, including an error with regard to the name, serial number in the electoral roll or other particulars of the candidate or his proposer or seconder so as to bring them in conformity with the corresponding entries in the electoral rolls.

(8) The Returning Officer shall not enquire into the correctness or validity of any entry in the electoral roll.

(9) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting it and, in case of rejection, record brief reasons therefor.

(10) An appeal against the decision of the Returning Officer rejecting or accepting the nomination paper of the candidate(s) may be preferred by any person present at the time of scrutiny under sub-rule (1) to the appellate authority, who shall be the District and Sessions Judge or any other judicial officer, appointed for the purpose by the Election Commission.

(11) The appeal under sub-rule (10) shall be summarily decided within such time as may be notified by the Election Commission and any order passed thereon shall be final.

(12) An appeal not disposed of within the period as notified by the Election Commission shall be deemed to have been rejected.

15. Publication of list of candidates.– (1) The Returning Officer shall, after the scrutiny of nomination papers, prepare in Form-VI, a list of validly nominated candidates and publish the same at a conspicuous place in his office. The list of validly nominated candidates shall be prepared for each category of seats separately.

(2) In case, an appeal is accepted by the Appellate Authority under sub-rule (10) of rule 14, the Returning Officer shall revise the list of the validly nominated candidates accordingly.

(3) A copy of the list of validly nominated candidates, prepared under sub-rule (1) or revised under sub-rule (2) shall be furnished by the Returning Officer to the District Returning Officer and the Election Commission or to such other officer as may be authorized by it in this behalf.

16. Withdrawal and retirement.– (1) Any validly nominated candidate, or as the case may be, joint candidates may, by notice in writing signed by the candidate(s) and delivered to the Returning Officer on or before the withdrawal day, either by the candidate in person or by an agent, duly authorized in this behalf in writing by such candidate(s), withdraw his candidature, as the case may be, and such notice shall not be open to recall or cancellation.

(2) The authorisation in favour of an agent shall be attested by the Oath Commissioner or a Notary appointed under the Notaries Ordinance, 1961 (XIX of 1961).

(3) On receiving a notice of withdrawal under sub-rule (1), the Returning Officer shall, if he is satisfied that the signatures on the notice are that of the candidate(s), cause a copy of the notice to be affixed at a conspicuous place in his office.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, on the day next following the withdrawal day, if the number of candidates is more than the seats fixed for each category, allocate symbols and prepare in Form-VII, a list of contesting candidates for each category of seats separately, and publish the same at a conspicuous place in his office and shall immediately provide a copy thereof to District Returning Officer and the Election Commission or such other officer as may be authorized by it in this behalf.

(5) A contesting candidate may, in the manner specified in sub-rule (1), retire from the contest on any day not later than four days before the polling day.

(6) As far as possible, the provisions of sub-rules (1), (2) and (3) shall apply to the retirement from contest under sub-rule (5), and a contesting candidate so retired shall be deemed to have withdrawn his candidature under sub-rule (1).

(7) The Returning Officer shall delete the name of the candidate who has retired from the contest under sub-rule (5) from the list of contesting candidates already prepared in Form-VII and shall revise the list in the manner laid down in sub-rule (4).

17. Death of candidate after nomination.— (1) If a contesting candidate dies before the day fixed for poll, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, terminate the proceedings relating to that election.

(2) The proceedings terminated under sub-rule (1) shall confine to the category of seat for which the deceased was a contesting candidate.

(3) Where proceedings relating to an election have been terminated under sub-rule (1), fresh proceedings shall be commenced in accordance with the provisions of these rules as if it would have been a new election.

(4) It shall not be necessary for other contesting candidates to file fresh nomination papers or to deposit fresh candidature fee.

18. Postponement of election proceedings.— Where the proceedings relating to nomination, scrutiny or withdrawal of any category of seat cannot, for reasons beyond the control of the Returning Officer, take place on the day appointed therefor, he may postpone or adjourn such proceedings of such category of seat and shall, inform the District Returning Officer and the Election Commission of his having done so, whereupon, the Election Commission shall fix another day for the proceedings so postponed or adjourned and, if necessary, also the day or days for any subsequent proceedings.

19. Uncontested election.— (1) Where, after withdrawal or retirement under rule 16, there remain only such number of contesting candidate or candidates as are equal to the number of seat or seats to be filled in each category, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, declare such candidate or candidates elected to the respective seat or seats.

(2) The Returning Officer shall submit to the District Returning Officer and the Election Commission, a return of the election in Form-XV in respect of which he has made a declaration under sub-rule (1).

(3) The Election Commission shall, after such inquiry as it may deem necessary, publish in the official Gazette the name or names of the candidate or candidates declared elected under sub-rule (1).

20. Contested election and allotment of symbols.— (1) In every constituency where election is contested, a symbol shall be allotted to a contesting candidate in accordance with the provisions of these rules and different symbols shall be allotted to different candidates at an election in the same constituency.

(2) A candidate nominated by a political party at an election in any constituency shall be allotted the symbol reserved for that political party by the Election Commission.

(3) The symbol reserved for a political party by the Election Commission shall not be allocated to any candidate in any constituency other than the candidate nominated by the political party.

(4) A candidate not nominated by any political party shall be considered an independent candidate and shall be allotted a symbol in the manner prescribed in Schedule-I.

(5) The Returning Officer shall, immediately after allotment of symbols:

- (a) publish at a conspicuous place in his office, the names of contesting candidates of all the categories of seat separately, arranged in Urdu alphabetical order specifying against each candidate the symbol allotted to him in Form-VII;
- (b) provide a copy of Form-VII to the District Returning Officer and the Election Commission or such other officer as may be authorized by it in this behalf; and
- (c) give a public notice of the hours of poll in Form-VIII.

(6) The Returning Officer shall arrange to exhibit prominently at each polling station the name and symbol of each contesting candidate of all categories of seats.

21. Election agent.— (1) A candidate may appoint a person, qualified to be elected as a member, to be his election agent.

(2) The appointment of an election agent may, at any time, be revoked in writing by the candidate and, when it is so revoked or the election agent dies, another person may be appointed by the candidate to be his election agent.

(3) When an election agent is appointed, the candidate shall send to the Returning Officer a notice in writing of the appointment, containing the name, father's name, address and specimen signatures of the election agent along with a copy of his National Identity Card.

22. Polling agent.— (1) The contesting candidates nominated by a political party for election to more than one category of seats in a Union Council and an independent contesting candidate, before the commencement of the poll, may appoint a polling agent for each polling booth of a polling station and shall give notice thereof in writing to the presiding officer.

(2) The political party and an independent candidate may at any time revoke the appointment of a polling agent made under sub-rule (1), and where it is so revoked, or in the event of death of the polling agent, another person may be appointed as polling agent in the manner as provided under sub-rule (1).

23. Absence of candidates and their agents not to invalidate election process.— Where any act or thing is required to be done under these rules in the presence of the candidate, an election agent or a polling agent, the failure of such person to attend at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not invalidate any act or thing otherwise validly done.

24. Hours of the poll.– The Election Commission shall fix the hours which shall not be less than eight hours, during which the poll shall be held and the Returning Officer shall give a public notice of the hours so fixed in Form-VIII and hold the poll accordingly.

25. Stopping of poll.– (1) The Presiding Officer of a polling station shall stop the poll and inform the Returning Officer that he has done so if:

- (a) the poll at the polling station is, at any time, so interrupted or obstructed for reasons beyond the control of the Presiding Officer that it cannot be resumed during the polling hours fixed under rule 24; or
- (b) any ballot box used at the polling station is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the Presiding Officer, or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed or lost, or is damaged or tampered with, to such an extent, that the results of the poll at the polling station cannot be ascertained.

(2) Where a poll has been stopped under sub-rule (1), the Returning Officer shall immediately report the circumstances to the District Returning Officer who shall inform the Election Commission in writing and the Election Commission shall direct a fresh poll at that polling station and fix a date for such poll, unless it is satisfied that the result of the election has been determined on the basis of the polling that has already taken place at that polling station, taken into account the results of the polling at other polling stations, in the same Union Council or Ward as the case may be.

(3) Where an order is made under sub-rule (2), the Election Commission shall notify the day for a fresh poll and fix the place at which and the hours during which such fresh poll shall be held, and the Returning Officer shall give notice of day so appointed and the place and hours so fixed.

(4) Where a fresh poll is held under sub-rule (3) at a polling station, all voters entitled to cast vote shall be allowed to vote and the votes cast earlier at the poll so stopped under sub-rule (1) shall not be counted; and, the provisions of the Act and these rules shall apply to such poll.

26. Ballot boxes.– (1) The Election Commission shall provide each Returning Officer with such number of ballot boxes, as may be necessary, of such material and design as may be approved by it.

(2) The Returning Officer shall provide each Presiding Officer with such number of ballot boxes as may be necessary for each polling station.

(3) Not more than one ballot box shall be used at a time for the purpose of the poll at each polling booth of a polling station.

(4) The Presiding Officer, before the time fixed for the commencement of the poll, shall:

- (a) ensure that every ballot box to be used is empty;
- (b) show the empty ballot box to the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents, whoever may be present and record their statements in this behalf and obtain their signatures thereon;
- (c) after the ballot box has been shown to be empty, close and seal it with the seals provided for the purpose; and

(d) place the ballot box so as to be conveniently accessible to the voters, and at the same time within his view and within the view of such candidates or their election or polling agents as may be present.

(5) If one ballot box is full or cannot further be used for receiving ballot papers, the Presiding Officer shall seal that ballot box and keep it in a secure place and use another ballot box in the manner laid down in sub-rule (4).

(6) A Presiding Officer shall make such arrangements at the polling station that every voter may be able to mark his ballot paper in secret before the same is folded and inserted in the ballot box.

27. Admission to polling station.— The Presiding Officer shall, subject to such instructions as the Election Commission may give in this behalf, regulate the number of voters to be admitted to the polling station at a time and exclude from the polling station all other persons except:

- (a) any person on duty in connection with the election;
- (b) the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents; and
- (c) such other persons as may be specifically permitted by the Election commission or the Returning Officer.

28. Maintenance of order at the polling station.— (1) The Presiding Officer shall keep order at the polling station and may remove or cause to be removed any person who commits misconduct at the polling station or fails to obey any lawful orders of the Presiding Officer.

(2) Any person removed under sub-rule (1) from a polling station shall not, without the permission of the Presiding Officer, again enter the polling station during the poll and shall if he is accused of an offence in a polling station, be liable to be arrested without warrant by a police officer.

(3) The powers under sub-rule (2) shall be so exercised not to deprive a voter of an opportunity to cast his vote at the polling station at which he is entitled to vote.

29. Ballot Paper.— A ballot paper of such colour and design as may be prescribed by the Election Commission for the election of a Union Council and wards of a Municipal Committee and it shall bear the names of contesting candidates along with symbols allotted to them.

30. Voting procedure.— (1) Where a voter presents himself at the polling station to vote, the Presiding Officer shall issue a ballot paper to the voter after satisfying himself about the identity of the voter, and shall, for that purpose, require the voter to produce his national identity card.

- (2) Before the ballot paper or ballot papers are issued to a voter:
 - (a) the number and name of the voter as entered in electoral roll shall be called out;
 - (b) the entry relating to the voter on the electoral roll shall be struck off to indicate that the ballot paper or ballot papers has or have been issued to him;
 - (c) he shall be required to receive a personal mark, made with indelible ink, on any finger of either hand as indicated by the Election Commission;
 - (c) the ballot paper shall be stamped on its back with the official mark and signed by the Presiding Officer; and

(d) the Presiding Officer shall record on the counterfoil of the ballot paper the number of the voter on the electoral roll, the number of National Identity Card of the voter, stamp it with the official mark, sign it and obtain on it the thumb impression of the voter.

(3) A ballot paper shall not be issued to a person who:

- (a) fails or refuses to produce his National Identity Card;
- (b) refuses to put his thumb impression on the counterfoil or whose thumb bears traces of its having already been used for putting an impression; and
- (c) refuses to receive the personal mark with indelible ink or who already bears such a mark or traces of such a mark.

(4) If a contesting candidate or his election or polling agent alleges that a voter to whom a ballot paper is about to be issued already has one or more ballot papers in his possession, the Presiding Officer may require the voter to satisfy him that he does not have any other ballot paper in his possession and may also take such measures as he thinks fit to ensure that such voter does not insert more than one ballot paper for each category of seats in the ballot box.

(5) The voter, on receiving the ballot paper shall –

- (a) forthwith proceed to the place reserved for marking the ballot paper;
- (b) put the prescribed mark on the ballot paper at any place within the space containing the symbol of contesting candidate for whom he wishes to vote; and
- (c) after he has so marked the ballot paper fold and insert it in the ballot box.

(6) Where a voter is blind or otherwise so incapacitated that he cannot vote without the assistance of a companion, the Presiding Officer shall allow him such assistance and thereupon such voter may do with such assistance anything which a voter is required or permitted to do under these rules.

(7) The voter shall vote without undue delay and shall leave the polling station immediately after he has inserted his ballot paper(s) in the ballot box.

31. Tendered ballot paper.– (1) If a person representing himself to be a voter applies for a ballot paper when another person has already represented himself to be that voter and has voted under the name of the person so applying, he shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of this rule, to receive a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as "Tendered Ballot Paper") in the same manner as any other voter.

(2) A ballot paper issued under sub-rule (1) shall, after it has been marked and folded by the voter, be placed in the same condition in separate packet bearing the label "Tendered Ballot Papers" instead of being placed in the ballot box, and shall not be included in the count by the Presiding Officer or the Returning Officer.

(3) The name of the person applying for a ballot paper under sub-rule (1) and his number on the electoral roll shall be entered in a list (hereinafter referred to as the "Tendered Votes List") to be prepared in Form-IX by the Presiding Officer.

32. Challenge of voters.– (1) If, at the time a person applies for a ballot paper for the purpose of voting, a candidate or his polling agent declares to the Presiding Officer that he has reasonable cause to believe that the person has already voted at the election, at the same or another polling station, or is not the person against whose name entered in the electoral roll he is seeking to vote, and undertakes to prove the charge in a court of law and deposits with the Presiding Officer in cash a sum of fifty rupees for each such challenge, the Presiding Officer may, after warning the person of the consequences and obtaining on the counterfoil his thumb impression and, if he is literate, also his signature, issue a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as "challenged ballot paper") to that person.

(2) If the Presiding Officer issues a ballot paper under sub-rule (1) to such person he shall enter the name and address of that person in a list to be prepared by him (hereinafter referred to as the "Challenged Votes List") in Form-X, and obtain thereon the thumb impression and, if he is literate, also the signature of that person.

(3) A ballot paper issued under sub-rule (1), shall, after it has been marked and folded by the voter, be placed in a separate packet bearing the label "Challenged Ballot Paper", instead of being inserted in the ballot box.

33. Spoilt ballot paper.— (1) A voter who has inadvertently so spoilt his ballot paper that it cannot be used as a valid ballot paper may, upon proving the fact of inadvertence to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer and returning the ballot paper to him, obtain another ballot paper and cast his vote by such other ballot paper.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall forthwith cancel the ballot paper returned to him under sub-rule (1), make a note to that effect on the counterfoil over his own signature and sign the cancelled ballot paper and place it in a separate packet labeled "Spoilt Ballot Papers".

(3) If a ballot paper issued to a voter has not been inserted by him into the ballot box and is found anywhere in or near the polling station, it shall be cancelled and also accounted for as "Spoilt Ballot Paper".

34. Voting after close of poll.— No person shall be given any ballot paper or be permitted to vote after the hour fixed for the close of the poll, except the persons who at that hour are present within the building, room, tent or enclosure in which the polling station is situated and have not voted but are waiting to vote.

35. Proceedings at the close of the poll.— (1) The Presiding Officer shall count the votes immediately after the close of the poll, in the presence of such of the contesting candidates, election agents and polling agents as may be present.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall give such of the contesting candidates, election agents and polling agents as may be present, reasonable facility of observing the count and give them such information with respect to the count as can be given consistent with the orderly conduct of the count and the discharge of his duties in connection therewith.

(3) No person other than the Presiding Officer, the Polling Officer, any other person on duty in connection with the poll, the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents shall be present at the count.

(4) Subject to the directions of the Election Commission, the Presiding Officer shall:

- (a) open the used ballot box(s) and count the entire lot of ballot papers taken out therefrom;

- (b) open the packet labeled "Challenged Ballot Paper" and count them; and
- (c) count the votes cast in favour of each contesting candidate excluding from the count the ballot papers, which bear:
 - (i) no official mark and signature of the presiding officer;
 - (ii) any writing or any mark other than the official mark, the signature of the presiding officer and the prescribed mark or to which a piece of paper or any other object of any kind has been attached;
 - (iii) no prescribed mark to indicate the contesting candidate for whom the voter has voted; or
 - (iv) any mark from which it is not clear for whom the voter has voted; provided that a ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in favour of a candidate if the whole or more than half of the area of the prescribed mark appears clearly within the space containing the symbol of that candidate; and
 - (v) where the prescribed mark is divided equally between two such spaces, the ballot paper shall be deemed to be invalid.
- (5) The Presiding Officer may recount the votes:
 - (a) of his own motion if he considers it necessary; or
 - (b) upon the request of a contesting candidate or an election agent present, if, in his opinion, the request is reasonable.

(6) The valid ballot papers cast in favour of each contesting candidate shall be put in separate packets and each such packet shall be sealed and shall contain a certificate as to the number of ballot papers put in it and shall also indicate the nature of the contents thereof, specifying the name and symbol of the contesting candidate to whom the packet relates.

(7) The ballot papers excluded from the count shall be put in a separate packet indicating thereon the total number of ballot papers contained therein.

(8) The packets mentioned in sub-rules (6) and (7) shall be put in a principal packet which shall be sealed by the Presiding Officer.

(9) The Presiding Officer shall, immediately after the count, prepare a statement of the count in Form-XI showing therein the number of valid votes polled by each contesting candidate and the ballot papers excluded from the count.

(10) The statement of the count shall be prepared by the Presiding Officer for each category of seats separately.

(11) The Presiding Officer shall also prepare in Form-XII, for each category of seats, a ballot paper account showing separately the number of:

- (a) ballot papers entrusted to him;
- (b) ballot papers taken out of the ballot box or boxes and counted;
- (c) tendered ballot papers;
- (d) challenged ballot papers;
- (e) spoilt ballot papers; and
- (f) un-issued ballot papers.

(12) The Presiding officer shall, if so requested by any candidate or election agent or polling agent present, deliver a certified copy of the statement of the count and the ballot paper account and obtain a receipt for such copy.

(13) The Presiding Officer shall seal in separate packets:

- (a) the un-issued ballot papers;
- (b) the spoilt ballot papers;
- (c) the tendered ballot papers;
- (d) the challenged ballot papers
- (e) the marked copies of the electoral rolls;
- (f) the counterfoils of the used ballot papers;
- (g) the tendered votes' list;
- (h) the challenged votes' list; and
- (i) such other papers as the Returning Officer may direct.

(14) The Presiding Officer shall obtain on each statement and packet prepared under this rule, the signatures of such contesting candidates or their election agents or polling agents as may present and if any such person refuses to sign, the Presiding Officer shall record that fact.

(15) After the close of the proceedings under the foregoing sub-rules, the Presiding Officer, shall, in compliance with such instructions as may be given by the Election Commission, cause the packets, the statement of the count and the ballot paper account prepared by him to be sent to the Returning Officer together with such other record as the Election Commission may direct.

36. Consolidation of results.— (1) The Returning Officer shall give the contesting candidates and their election agents a notice of the day, time and place fixed for the consolidation of the results and publish the same at a conspicuous place in his office.

(2) Before consolidating the results of the count, the Returning Officer shall examine the ballot papers excluded from the count by the Presiding Officers and if he finds that any such ballot paper should not have been so excluded, count it as a valid ballot paper cast in favour of the contesting candidate for whom the vote had otherwise been cast.

(3) The ballot papers rejected by the Returning Officer under sub-rule (2) shall be shown separately in the consolidated statement.

(4) The Returning Officer shall consolidate in Form-XIII, separately for each category of seats, the results of the count furnished by the Presiding Officers.

(5) The Returning Officer may recount the valid ballot papers before consolidation of results: -

- (a) upon the request or challenge in writing made by, a contesting candidate or his election agent and if, the Returning Officer is satisfied that the request or the challenge is reasonable; or
- (b) if so directed by the Election Commission.

37. Equality of votes.— (1) Where, after consolidation of the results of the count under rule 36, it appears that there is equality of votes between two or more contesting candidates and the addition of one vote for one such candidate would entitle him to be declared elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith draw a lot in respect of such candidates, and the candidate on whom the lot falls shall be deemed to have received the highest number of votes, entitling him to be declared elected.

(2) The lot shall be drawn in the presence of such contesting candidates and their election agents as may be present.

(3) The Returning Officer shall keep a record of the proceedings in writing, and obtain thereon the signatures of such candidates and election agents, as have been witness to the proceedings and if any such person refuses to sign, such fact shall be recorded.

38. Declaration of results.— (1) The Returning Officer shall, immediately after the consolidation of results under rule 36 or drawal of lot under rule 37 shall submit to the District Returning Officer, a return of the election in Form-XIV together with a copy of the consolidated statement in Form XIII, the name or names of the returned candidate or candidates of each category of seats.

(2) The Returning Officer shall also send a copy of Form-XIII and Form-XIV to the Election Commission or any of its officer authorised in this behalf.

(3) Subject to the directions of the Election Commission, the District Returning Officer shall arrange the names of returned candidates of all the Union Councils, or as the case may be, wards, for each local area of the District separately and forward the same to the Election Commission for publication in the official Gazette.

- (c) the packets containing the marked copies of the electoral rolls;
- (d) the packets containing the ballot paper account;
- (e) a packet containing the tendered ballot papers, the challenged ballot papers, the tendered votes list and the challenged votes list; and
- (f) such other papers as the Election Commission may direct.

(2) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each packet forwarded under sub-rule (1) the description of its contents, the date of the election to which the contents relate, the name of the constituency for which the election was held.

(3) The Election Commission shall retain the documents contained in the packets received under sub-rule (1) for a period of one year from the date of their receipt, and thereafter shall, unless otherwise directed by the Tribunal or any court of competent jurisdiction, cause them to be destroyed.

(4) The documents received under sub-rule (3) shall be kept in safe custody at such place as is directed by the Election Commission.

57. Public inspection of documents.– The documents retained under rule 56, except the ballot papers, shall be open to public inspection at such time and subject to such conditions as may be specified by the Election Commission, upon an application made in this behalf and on payment of such fee as may be fixed by the Election Commission and the copies thereof, or extracts therefrom may be obtained by any voter of the local area, on written application and payment of fee as determined by the Election Commission.

58. Order for production of documents.– (1) A tribunal may order the opening of packets of counterfoils and certificates or the inspection of any accounted ballot papers.

(2) An order under sub-rule (1) may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place and mode of inspection, production of documents and opening of packets as the tribunal making the order may think expedient.

(3) Where an order is made under sub-rule (1) the production by the Returning Officer of any document in such manner as may be directed by the order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the election specified in the order, and any endorsement or any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are according to the endorsement made thereon.

(4) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at an election, and of a counterfoil having a number, shall be prima facie evidence that the voter whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the voter whose National Identity Card number was written on the counterfoil.

(5) Save as provided in this rule, no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot paper.

CHAPTER-IX ELECTION EXPENSES

59. Election expenses.– (1) In this Chapter, “election expenses” means any expenditure incurred or payment made, whether by way of gift, loan, advance, deposit or otherwise, for the arrangement, conduct or benefit of, or in connection with, or incidental to the election of a candidate including the expenditure on account of issuing circulars or publications or otherwise presenting to the electors, the candidate or his views, aims or objects; but does not include the deposit made under rule 13.

(2) No candidate shall incur expenses on his elections exceeding the amount specified in Schedule-VI.

60. Statement of election expenses.– (1) Every contesting candidate shall, within thirty days of the publication of names of the returned candidates in the official Gazette, submit to the Returning Officer a statement of election expenses in Form-XVI containing an account of all payments made by the contesting candidate together with all the bills and receipts.

(2) The statement, submitted under sub-rule (1), shall be accompanied by an affidavit sworn by the contesting candidate.

61. Inspection of statements.– (1) The statement and documents submitted under rule 60 shall be kept by the Returning Officer in his office or at such other convenient place as he may think fit and shall, during one year from the date of their receipt, keep open to inspection by any person on payment of fee as may from time to time be fixed by the Election Commission.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, on an application made in this behalf and on payment of fee as may from time to time be fixed by the Election Commission, give any person copies of any statement or document kept under sub-rule (1) or of any part thereof.

CHAPTER-X ELECTION PETITIONS

62. Election petition.– (1) No election shall be called in question except by an election petition made by a candidate for that election (hereinafter referred to as the “petitioner”).

(2) An election petition shall be presented to the tribunal appointed by the Election Commission within thirty days of the publication in the official Gazette of the names of the returned candidate and shall be accompanied by a receipt showing that the petitioner has deposited in a scheduled bank in favour of the Election Commission a sum of rupees two thousand as fee for the petition.

(3) An election petition shall be presented by a petitioner and shall be deemed to have been presented, when it is delivered in person by the petitioner, or by a person authorized in this behalf by him, to the tribunal appointed by the Election Commission for the purpose.

63. Parties to the petition.– (1) The petitioner shall join all contesting candidates as respondents to his election petition and shall serve personally or by registered post (acknowledgement due) on each respondent a copy of his petition.

(2) The Election Commission, its Officer, District Returning Officer, Returning Officer and a person appointed in connection with conduct of an election shall not be impleaded as parties in the election petition.

64. Contents of petition.– (1) Every election petition shall contain:

- (a) a precise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;
- (b) full particulars of any corrupt or illegal practice or other illegal act alleged to have been committed, including as far as possible a statement of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt or illegal practice or illegal act and the date and place of the commission of such practice or act; and
- (c) the relief claimed by the petitioner.

(2) A petitioner may claim as relief any of the following declarations:

- (a) that the election of the returned candidate is void and that the petitioner or some other person has been duly elected, or
- (b) that the election as a whole is void.

(3) Every election petition and every schedule or annex to that petition shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the verification of pleadings.

65. Appointment of tribunal.– For the trial of election petitions under these rules, the Election Commission may appoint as many tribunals as may be necessary under section 39 of the Act.

66. Place of trial.– The trial of an election petition shall be held at such place or places as the tribunal may think fit.

67. Appearance before tribunal.– (1) Any appearance, application or act before a tribunal may be made or done by a party in person or through an authorised agent or advocate.

(2) The tribunal may, if it considers necessary, direct any party to appear in person.

68. Procedure before tribunal.– (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the rules, every election petition shall be tried, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the procedure for the trial of suits under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908):

- (2) The tribunal may:
 - (a) where the election petition claims relief for a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void on the ground that the returned candidate was not, on the nomination day, qualified for, or was disqualified from being elected as a member, decide the question of such qualification or disqualification as preliminary issue;
 - (b) require the parties to file within fifteen days of the date on which the case is fixed for evidence, a list of witnesses whom they propose to produce to give evidence or to produce documents, mentioning against the name of each witness a precise of the evidence that each witness is expected to give;
 - (c) make a memorandum of the substance of the evidence of each witness as his examination proceeds unless it considers that there is a special reason for taking down the evidence of any witness in full;
 - (d) refuse to examine a witness if it considers that his evidence is not material or that he has been called on a frivolous or vexatious ground, for the purpose of delaying the proceedings or defeating the ends of justice; and
 - (e) refuse to issue any summons for the appearance of any witness unless, within three days following the date on which the parties are called upon to produce their evidence, any party intimates the tribunal that it desires a witness to be summoned through the tribunal and the tribunal is satisfied that it is not possible or practicable for such party to produce the witness.

(3) The tribunal may permit the evidence of any witness to be given by means of an affidavit.

(4) If the tribunal deems fit, it may call such witness for the purpose of examination before it.

(5) The tribunal may, at any time, on such terms and on payment of such costs as it may direct, allow a petition to be amended in such a manner as may, in its opinion, be necessary for ensuring a fair and effective trial and for determining the real questions in controversy, provided that no new ground of challenge to the election is permitted to be raised.

69. Decision on the petition.– The tribunal may, on conclusion of trial of an election petition, make an order in accordance with the provisions of sections 41 to 45 of the Act.

70. Dismissal of petition during trial.– The tribunal may dismiss an election petition if-

- (a) the provisions of rules 67 and 68 have not been complied with; or
- (b) the allegations contained therein are vague or do not disclose the commission of any corrupt practice, material irregularity or any other illegal act.

71. Abatement on death of petitioner.– An election petition shall abate on the death of a sole petitioner or of the sole survivor of several petitioners.

72. Death or withdrawal of respondent.– If, before the trial of an election petition, a respondent dies or gives notice in writing that he does not intend to contest the petition, and no respondent remains to contest the petition, the Tribunal shall without any further hearing or after giving such person as it may think fit an opportunity of being heard, decide the case ex parte.

73. Failure of petitioner to appear.– Subject to rule 72, where at any stage of the trial of an election petition, the petitioner fails to appear either in person or through authorized agent, the tribunal may dismiss the petition for default and make such order as to costs as it may think fit.

74. Order as to costs.– (1) The tribunal shall, when making an order under rule 73 also make an order determining in its discretion the costs and specifying the persons by and to whom such costs are to be paid.

(2) If, in any order as to costs under sub-rule (1) there is a direction for the payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not already been paid, be payable in full and shall, upon application in writing in that behalf made to the tribunal within sixty days of the order by the person to whom costs have been awarded, be paid as far as possible, out of costs deposited by such party.

(3) Any order for costs may be enforced upon an application in writing made to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction of the district in which the local government to which the disputed election relates is situated, as if such order were a decree passed by that court.

(4) No proceeding shall be brought under sub-rule (1) except in respect of costs which have not been recovered through an application under sub-rule (2).

75. Withdrawal of petition.– (1) An election petition may be withdrawn by leave of the tribunal.

(2) Where leave is granted by the tribunal, the petitioner shall be ordered to pay the costs incurred by respondents to the election petition or such portion thereof as the tribunal may direct.

76. Supply of copies of decision on petition.– (1) Copies of any interim or final orders passed by the tribunal on any election petition may be furnished to the parties to the petition by the tribunal on application in writing.

(2) The fee for supply of copies under sub-rule (1), shall be ten rupees for each page.

(3) Every application for the supply of copies under sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied by court fee stamps of the requisite value.

77. Retention of the record.– The tribunal shall, after an election petition has been disposed of, forward the record thereof to the Election Commission which shall retain such record for a period of one year from the date of its receipt and shall thereafter cause it to be destroyed except the record of those petitions which are sub judice before any court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER-XI MISCELLANEOUS

78. Powers of Election Commission.– Save as otherwise provided, the Commission may:
